Library Trustee Candidates for 2015: 2 Seats

Gary Layman

1. I have been a tax payer in our community for over 40 years, have sent three children through the Rye school system and currently have two of my seven grandchildren attending Portsmouth High school. My eldest daughter is the chairman of the North Hampton Library trustees.
2. I am a Veteran, a member of MENSA, and have a B.A. from the University of Colorado and an MBA from the University of Denver. I have served as a Rye Library Trustee in the past, and did an excellent job as treasurer. Before retiring I was the Global Industry Manager for the electronic materials division of a Fortune 500 company.
3. Being retired, there are no limitations on the amount of time I can give to the Library and its programs.
4. Finally, I am totally independent and committed to the ethical principles that enable intellectual freedom and preserve individual rights to privacy and confidentiality. I specifically support all initiatives that are best for all the citizens of the town, with no partisan bias. This last point is not valid for all contenders, (see Portsmouth Herald March 8, 2012 article by Joey Cresta)
5. Although my name is misspelled on the ballot, (I have two "r"s in Garry) and my name appears in the undesirable third position on the ballott, I love the Rye Public Library and believe that a vote for GARRY LAYMAN for Library trustee is an excellent option for Rye.

Karen Oliver

I am running for my third term as Rye Public Library Trustee. I currently serve as chair of the RPL Board of Trustees. I am an attorney and Rye resident. I am married with one daughter in Rye Elementary School. I love our library and would appreciate your vote so I can continue to serve.
