

Rye 1976 - Bicentennial Slide Show

Thursday, July 2nd, 6:30 pm

Rye Public Library

As part of Rye's 300th anniversary and the nation's 250th, Town Historian Alex Herlihy will take attendees back to 1976 with a Bicentennial Slide Show. Yes, it's a real slide show—with an actual carousel projector and Kodachrome slides.

If you remember America's Bicentennial (or just want to see what Rye looked like during that red, white, and blue summer),

This will be a fun and nostalgic evening. with lots of display materials from that golden summer of 1976
